A STATE OF SEIGE.

REPUBLICANS INTRENCHED AT TOPEKA CAPITOL.

The Troops Refuse to Obey the Governor.

Topeka, Kansas, Feb. 16.—The State troops called on by the Governor to dislodge the Republican legislature have refused to obey his orders and people are hurrying to Topeka from all parts of the State.

Provisions are being sent to the Capitol building and also arms and ammunition, being pulled up by ropes. The city is crowded with people.

The State has the only newspaper man inside the hall of the House of Representatives. At Topeka he gives an account of the proceedings inside, sent by wire direct from the hall. The members left in squads and got breakfast this morning and returned, each with provisions for the Sergeants-at-Arms, who could not leave, as the guards would not let them return.

At 11 the Sergeants-at-Arms appeared with Winchester, which they stacked in handy places. Then came a lot of mail carriers, who cannot be kept out, with provisions. Next came 24 men armed with Winchester, stationed at the head of the stairs to keep out any unauthorized Populists. A company of 30 men appeared on the stairway and announced that they were the Lawrence Guards, come to assist their friends. The Republicans soon discovered them to be Populists, and drove them away at the point of the bayonet.

The Governor sent a message to the House threatening to drive the members out with bayonets if they did not vacate in 15 minutes. The message was received with derisive laughter. The House doubled its guards, but the Governor's forces failed to appear.

The Legislative Ball.

Tonight's ball given by the sixteenth session of the Nevada Legislature will be a splendid affair in every respect. The gentlemen constituting the reception committee will see that no improper characters are admitted, and it is the intention of the management to see that all guests spend a very enjoyable evening. The music will consist of an orchestra of eight pieces from Reno, rendering music calculated to suit the most exacting ear. The programs are tasty and unique and will be souvenirs of the occasion. A large delegation is expected from Reno and Virginia, giving the lawmakers an opportunity to mingle in the mazy waltz with the elite of three cities. The Legislators hope to see all their friends present, and in the intricacies of dreamy dance and soft melody, the hatchet will be interred and the bone of contention laid aside for the time being, at least.

Lieut. Gov. Ponce will act in the capacity of Floor Director, and the following gentlemen will act as Floor Managers: Speaker Bell, Messrs. Pike, McNaughton, Folsom, Smith, Hoppin, Wheeler, Melarkey, McDonnell.

The following gentlemen will constitute the Reception Committee: Messrs. Boston, Allen, Foster, Reynolds, Foulks, Hill, Locklin, Russell, Monahan, Thies, Comins, LaGrave.

The Poet's Number.

Vick's Floral Guide for 1893 is just reaching this coast. It is named "The Poet's Number" from the fact that appropriate poetical quotations accompany nearly every cut of the various flowers described. It is also unique in appearance.

Little sailor men with pansy faces show up in every colored plate and upon the bright attractive covers. They present many novelties which excite the lover of flowers to renewed enthusiasm and possible extravagance. The old favorites are all there, however, and a small expenditure for seeds and plants will make a lovely display of bloom next Summer if supplemented with plenty of patience and devotion to the garden. They also offer special inducements in premiums. If you have not seen this catalogue send to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y.

D. Circe has a lot of fine pine wood for sale. Apply at the Carson Exchange. jan29
